Notes:

OFF BOOK means you have all of your lines memorized and can recite them without the aid of your script or by calling for "Line".

The Off Book dates are not a suggestion. They are for the benefit of all actors involved in scenes and the performance.

Please pay close attention to each rehearsal night and make sure you highlight or makes notes on the days you are called

Please also look at the Performance Nights on this schedule. If you are stepping into your understudy role on one of these nights, this is in bold and underlined.
